I just leveled to 120, but so I try to go back to grind, now I only have 1 rep for normal mobs and 3-4 from the elite (Gorgrond, Pit). I thought the rep would stay the same, even when mobs are the gray source: The reputation rewarded for killing mobs will no longer depreciate automatically. This means trivial mobs will continue to give out their full amounts of reputation on kill for most cases in the game (level 70 creatures in Stratholme, for example, will continue to give the full amount of rep to level 80 players who want to boost their faction Argent Dawn). Am I missing something here? UPDATE, GM answer:*Hi Bloodfest, Champion of Naaru,My name is Ali aka Game Master Laelkreste and I hope everything goes well for you :)Time to hear that you have some concerns about winning the rep with Dreanor Laughter Skull orcs. I did some checks in this and I couldn't find any report of a reputation changes when you hit 120, the rep you'll win should be the same, no matter what level you are. I couldn't confirm this could be bugged or not as I have nothing internal to compare too (rep before and after, where it changes!). I'm sure you've already seen this, but it may prove useful in your quest to get your reputation with the Laughter Skull Orcs have added the note to an internal report we'll open up to the reported issues of players, so developers can take a look at that, it would be nice if you could also please submit a bug report, and more awareness reports this can bring if there really something is wrong. Details on how to do it work, please check here: if there is really a problem we can see a fix for that in the future. I wish you a pleasant weekend :)Kin best regards, Ali * If anyone else could test that would be great :)Page 2 26 comments Last updated on November 12, 2014 at 23:13 by Vlad 2 comments The Laughing Skull Orcs is one of the 3 horde-only factions introduced into the Warlords of the Draenor expansion. This faction is related to your Garrison, in particular 2 Trading Post. Building this building is the only way to access this faction. Most of the reputation with the Laughter Skull Orcs is obtained by killing certain mafias. In this guide, we'll show you the rewards you can get from this faction, as well as go all the way to Neutral to Exalted. 1. Rewards all rewards of the Laughter Skull Orcs are purchased from the commander of the faction, Kil'rip, who is in the garrison trading station. Among them, elements of transmogrification, a mountain, and a Garrison follower will probably be of the greatest interest. In addition to these many items, reaching exalted also rewards with the achievement of The Skull Orcs Laughter and the Title Masked Chuckler. Below, we show you all the rewards that can be purchased from Quartermaster, sorted by reputation level. 1.1. Friendly Once you have reached friendly status, you can purchase two items from Kil'rip. Laughing Skull Elixir costs 1 and 5. This is an Elixir that gives you a 30-minute buff. Buff gives your attacks a chance to damage shadows and increases movement speed by 5%. It can only be used in Gorgrond. Happy Fun Skull is a fun item that can be thrown at a friendly player. 5 Happy Fun Skulls can be purchased for 500. 1.2. Honored Once you have reached your honored status, you can purchase two rewards from Kil'rip. Maniacal Grimace costs 500. It's a keychain that calls a Berserker Skull Laughter to fight on your side. Tickle Totem costs 1,250. It is a vanity toy that allows you to place a totem. 1.3. Venerat Once you have reached your revered status, you can purchase three transmogrification headphones from your Kil'rip for 1,000 each. In addition, you can purchase two other rewards. Contract: Cacklebone costs 5,000 . This gives you the exude garrison Cacklebone, a level 100 Shaman Restoration. Bone Wasp is a fighting pet that costs 2,000 and 10. 1.4. Exalted Once you have reached exalted status, you can purchase 3 rewards from Kil'rip. 2. Earn ingrin earning reputation with Orcs The Laughing Skull is very simple. You will have access to your reputation simply by getting a Level 2 Trading Post in your garrison. The only way to go through different levels of reputation, all the way up to exalted status, however, is to kill level 100 mobs in two areas of Gorgrond. in the Gorgrond Pit, west of Blackrock Foundry; in Everbloom Forest, east of the area. Making the wildest places their home, these Orcs are brutal, fearless, and cunning. These Orcs are very clan based and take pride in the fact that they are in the first Laughter Skull Orci. This is why, so far, this particular orc clan has refused to join with Garrosh and his notorious iron horde. By refusing to join the Iron Horde, the Orcs of the Laughing Skull were put a rather precarious position. With the danger of closing in, this Orc clan seems to find the thought of annihilating their exhilarating rather than intimidating. Their lack of enthusiasm for joining the Iron Horde made them natural allies of the Frostwolf Clan and inadvertently, the Horde heroes should hurry to win favor with this clan because they may be the key to surviving the Iron Horde attack. Unlocking the Laughing Skull Clan Faction Unlike most other factions in the Warlords of Draenor, players will find laughing Skull Clan faction is not available to them at first. Instead, this faction is directly related to the homes of the new player implemented in the game; Garrison. This means that this faction will likely be accessed at different points of the game by each individual player. To access this particular faction, players must obtain a Level 2 trading station inside their garrison. To do this, first a Trading Post Level 1 must be built. It can then be updated later to level 2. When Trading Post Level 2 is in effect, this faction will unlock automatically. When this happens, the player will finally be able to earn reputation for Laughing Skull Clan Orcs. Earn reputation - Laughing Skull Clan Earn reputation with the Laughing Skull Clan is pretty easy, so it seems to be with almost all warlords of Draenor's reputations. Currently there are no quests associated with this faction, so players must depend on killing mobs for reputation gain. Mobs that earn reputation for this faction are level 100 and can be found in the gorgernd pit, as well as most wild animals found inside Everbloom wilds. Remember, you must have a Trading Post Level 2 for these mobs to give you any reputation. Rewards – Laughing Clan Skull Apart from knowing this quite interesting faction, the Laughing Skull Clan will offer the Horde players various other rewards to win their favor. This faction commander is ready and waiting to sell his wares. Remember, the better your reputation the more rewards you will be able to buy. Quartermaster for The Laughter Skull Orcs can be found directly inside the garrison trading station. Rewards can be purchased for gold or a combination of gold crystals and apexis. Rewards for the Laughing Skull Clan include: Friendly Laughing Skull Elixir - Gives the chance to do Shadow damage and increases movement speed by 5%. It takes 30 minutes and is usable only in Gorgrond. Happy Fun Skull - Toy that can be thrown at friendly players. Honored Manical Grimace - Trinket who invokes a Berserker Skull Laugh to fight on your side. Tickle Totem - Toy that allows you to place a Venerat bone wasp - Pet Battle.
